

HUST vision and mission is stated in its website: <https://en.hust.edu.vn/mission-vision-goals>

Mission	Vision
A commitment to human development, high-quality workforce training, scientific research, technological innovation and knowledge transfer that serves our country and global society.	To become a leading research university rooted in the technical and technological fields; to make significant contributions that develop a knowledge-based economy and maintain national peace and security, and to be a pioneer in growing and sustaining Vietnam's higher-education system.
